Important Note

- This brochure is for illustrative purposes only. You are advised to refer to the PRUinvestor care Product Disclosure Sheet before purchasing a plan, and to refer to the Terms and Conditions in the insurance certificate for details of the important features of the plan.
- You should assess the affordability and suitability of the product. To achieve this, we recommend that you speak to your Sales Representative who will perform a needs analysis and assist you in making an informed decision.
- There is a free-look period of 15 days after the delivery of your insurance certificate to allow you to review if it meets your needs. If the insurance coverage is cancelled within this period, we will refund to you the full premium less medical expenses (if any).
- The premium rate is NOT guaranteed on renewal. Based on the claims experience and other justified circumstances, we reserve the right to:
 - i. revise the renewal premium rates;
 - ii. revise the terms and conditions; or
 - iii. decline the insurance coverage renewal.

Note: The possible conditions for insurance coverage renewal disclosed above are not exhaustive.

- You need to renew the insurance coverage annually, before the expiry of the insurance coverage. The renewal of the insurance coverage is not guaranteed.
- If you cancel the insurance coverage, you are entitled to a refund of the premium paid provided that the insurance certificate is in-force, premiums have been paid up to date and no claim has been made during the current insurance coverage year. The premium will be pro-rated based on the unexpired insurance coverage period.
- Grace period is only applicable upon renewal. You are given 30 days grace period from the premium due date to make payment.
- Prudential Assurance Malaysia Berhad is a licensed insurance company and is regulated by Bank Negara Malaysia.
